Description: Set in 1965, teenage Alan travels from Paris to Spain with his beloved nanny, Maruja, and her husband, Manolo, who have emotionally raised him. We follow the three on their memorable summer voyage to seek resolution, to untangle lies, and to search for identity while there is still time. Themes of separation and loss, rupture and reconciliation, truths and secrets unfold in this powerful true story of complicated love. The film is based on the memoir of the same name by author, Alan Jolis.
